CHARLES RENNIE
MACKINTOSH
SOCIETY™

Charles Rennie Mackintosh, the Glasgow born architect, designer and artist is celebrated around the world as one of the most creative figures of the early 20th century.

Mackintosh took his inspiration from our Scottish traditions and blended them with the flourish of Art Nouveau and the simplicity of Japanese forms.

Glasgow, is central to an understanding of his achievements for it is here that the most important of his surviving works are to be found.

Member Benefits

The Charles Rennie Mackintosh Society publish an annual Journal, and a regular newsletter is sent to all our members. As well as providing a useful resource for students and academics, the Journal is also of interest to a wider audience. Reviews of books, exhibitions and events, news on Mackintosh collections and updates on developments/conservation programmes are included along with new research.

Exclusive events

Membership provides an opportunity to meet fellow enthusiasts and participate in the events programme. Study tours, lectures, visits, private views and other events are offered exclusively to Society members. Past visits have included special access to less well-known Mackintosh buildings.

Special offers and discounts

Get free and discounted entry to various Mackintosh venues and enjoy 10% off at our shop.

The Charles Rennie Mackintosh Society is an independent, non-profit making charity, established in 1973 to promote and encourage awareness of the Scottish architect and designer. The Society plays an important role in supporting the conservation, maintenance and improvements of buildings and artefacts designed by Charles Rennie Mackintosh and his contemporaries.

In 1999, the Society became owner and long-term custodian of Mackintosh Queen's Cross. Membership of the Society provides a unique opportunity to support the only church built to Charles Rennie Mackintosh's design.
